MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM : Special Assistant to the Director for Interdepartmental Affairs

SUBJECT : Support for U.S. Policy re Credits to USSR

1. On 25 March 1982 the Director received requests from Treasury, Commerce, and Defense for analytical support for U.S. policy deliberations regarding government-guaranteed credits to the USSR following the Buckley mission.

2. In a subsequent discussion with Norm Bailey, [] confirmed that Treasury has the lead in developing U.S. policy on credits and that the analysis should be conducted along the lines suggested by Treasury (see attached TOR). As a result, [] and I discussed this matter with the Director, who requested that [] organize CIA's contribution per Treasury's requirements.

Bill:

Attached is a first cut of a draft Terms of Reference for the study we discussed this morning. I understand that Lionel may also be sending you a draft outline of the study. We can go over these and refine them at an interagency meeting on the paper, which we should set up as soon as possible. My office will follow up.
